

What
About
That Dandruff?

There is just this much about it: Dandruff is a germ disease, is most untidy, annoying, and leads to baldness. When chronic, it is very stubborn, but surely yields to thorough and energetic treatment. All germs must be destroyed, the scalp must be restored to health. Here is the remedy: Ayer's Hair Vigor. Ask your doctor about using it.

CHINESE MERCHANTS' BANQUET TO THEIR WINNING BASEBALL TEAM

An elaborate banquet was given to the members of the All-Chinese baseball nine by the Chinese merchants, last night at the Sun Yui Wo club-house on Smith street.

The complimented guests who were responsible for accomplishing a decisive defeat of the Kelo University nine were:

En Sue, L. Tin, Akana, Che Bui, Asam, Kan Yen, Sing Hung, Ayau and Apau.

Among those present were:

W. Tin Chong, toastmaster; Judge Robinson, Deputy Sheriff, Rose, Dr. Wong Leong, C. H. Merriam, Tom Treadway, John Akana, Pat Gleason, Lau Tang, Senator Chillingworth, H. Godfrey, H. M. Ayres, E. A. Douthitt, John Anderson, L. Y. Ahoo, H. Winkley, R. W. Breckons, Gus Murphy, Lorin Andrews, W. H. Crawford, Loo Joe, F. McIntyre, R. J. Buchly, Farm Cornn, Dr. Chang, John Marcellino, Chock Hoy, Tong Kau, Leong Chew, Y. Ahin, Lum Ong, Ching Chee, Lum Wan, Leong Yit, Yit Sang, Sam Wong, W. Tin Yau, Ho Fon, Young Kwong Tat, Hang Chack, David Sherwood, and W. Greenwell.

The banquet started at 5:45 p. m. and was prefaced by salvoes of fire-crackers and bombs and the decoration of the baseball heroes with red carnation leis.

The menu comprised sixteen courses of Chinese dishes, including such delicacies as: Bird's nest soup, stewed shark's fin, preserved duck, Shanghai ham, abalone fricassee, Formosan seaweed and chopped chicken, almond patties and orange pudding.

San shu of rare vintage was served between courses.

During the evening L. Y. Ahoo, prompted by Senator Chillingworth, gave an admirable interpretation of the dance of his adopted country, and later on others kindly obliged in the same line. Frank McIntyre was down on the program for a terpsichorean number but he strenuously resisted all efforts to bring him into the charmed circle.

The speeches were numerous and as a rule excellent in quality.

Judge Robinson in eulogistic reference to the Chinese as baseball players remarked that the better a man played the better an American citizen he was.

Wong Leong jokingly remarked that the Chinese would now have to practice boxing as well as baseball in order that they might be able to treat some of their opponents as they had been treated by them.

C. H. Merriam said that he was one of the keenest baseball fans in Honolulu and that not the least of the reasons why he admired the game was because of the undeniable influence it had in cementing the various races which went to make up the cosmopolitan population of this Territory.

Alec Asam, captain of the All-Chinese, thanked the team for sticking together and supporting him so well.

C. F. Chillingworth said that there was a proposition on foot to take an All-Chinese team to the Coast in 1915 to meet the best Californian nines and that the matter was already well in hand.

Pat Gleason gave the company a few pointers on how to play "foxy" baseball, and Johnny Anderson said "pro sit" in Chinese and called it a speech. U. S. District Attorney Breckons put himself on record as being a baseball enthusiast, though admitting that he couldn't steal a base even if he knew that a tin of opium was hidden under it, and, he remarked, he believed that he was a pretty good American too. This, in reference to a remark made earlier in the evening.

A representative of the press complimented the Chinese athletes on the proficiency they had attained in sports since the Chinese Athletic Club was formed several years ago and said that the spirit in which the All-Chinese nine went into their second game with the Kelos, in the face of a previous severe defeat, and by playing the game in every sense of the word was a glorious victory, was one which might well be emulated by every sporting organization in the Territory.

time it looked as if he might be able to stay the limit.

That half-hammerlock did the work, however, and Froelicher went down a beaten but not a disgraced man.

After the bout Thomas shook hands with his opponent and complimented him by telling him that he was a much better man than he had expected to meet.

There is a possibility that the men may be matched for a longer contest before very long.

SPORTDRIFT

There will be baseball at the Athletic park this afternoon between the Kelos and the Japanese Athletic Club, and the Portuguese and St. Louis nines. The latter nines will play the first game.

Tomorrow afternoon the Stars will play the Kelos and the Hawaiis will tackle the J. A. C.

It is said that the Japanese boycott is off and that the local Japs will turn out in force tomorrow afternoon to give the Kelos a proper send-off in their last game.

Ishikawa will probably pitch for the Kelos this afternoon.

The local Japanese should have learned to be good losers by this time. They have had lots of practice.

The polo game to be played at Leliehua this afternoon between the Oahu and Fifth Cavalry teams, will start at three o'clock. Six periods of six minutes each will be played and George Angus will referee the game. No charge for admission will be made and everyone is invited to attend.

All communications relative to Joe Thomas' wrestling challenge should be addressed to William Douthitt, his manager.

The round-the-island race for the Governor's Cup will start this afternoon at four o'clock. The entries will be: Gladys (holder), Hawaii, Kamehameha, Charlotte, The Mollison, which was expected to be a contestant, has been withdrawn. The race last year was won by the Gladys which defeated the Charlotte C. by seven minutes, the Kamehameha finishing seventeen minutes behind the Charlotte C. There is a promise of light winds for today's race and taking that into consideration the Gladys is conceded to possess an excellent chance of retaining the trophy.

There will be a cricket practice at Makiki this afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock, and a good attendance is desired by the management of the H. C. C.

It is reported that Espinda may be seen in the box for the J. A. C. against the Kelos this afternoon.

Kid George and Patsy McKenna are matched to furnish a ten-round preliminary for the Jimmy-Monte Attel fight. What again? This certainly looks like an illegal combination to restrain good boxing.

Sachs' great clearance sale begins Tuesday morning.
